

Adam was a prophet, first one that we know.

In a place called Eden, he helped things to grow.

Adam served the Lord by following His ways.

We are his descendants in the latter days.

Enoch was a prophet; he taught what was good.

People in his city did just what they should.

When they were so righteous that there was no sin,

Heav'nly Father took them up to live with Him.

Noah was a prophet called to preach the word,

Tried to cry repentance, but nobody heard.

They were busy sinning—Noah preached in vain.

They wished they had listened when they saw the rain.

Abraham the prophet prayed to have a son,

So the Lord sent Isaac as the chosen one.

Isaac begat Jacob, known as Israel;
Jacob's sons were twelve tribes, so the Bible tells.

Moses was a prophet sent to Israel.

He would lead them to the promised land to dwell.

They were slow to follow, or so it appears.

They were in the wilderness for forty years.

Joseph Smith, a young boy, asked which church was right.

God the Father and His Son appeared in heavenly light.

He received the gold plates,
restoring gospel truth.

Joseph organized the Church again upon the earth.

Brigham Young, the prophet,
Valiant to the end,
“Lion of the Lord,”
He was Jesus’ friend.
Led the Saints to safety
Far out in the West,
Helped them to grow mighty,
Equal to the test.

Heavenly Father loves us and wants us to return.

He blesses us with prophets who help us to learn.

President Nelson humbly leads God's Church today.

As we heed his words, we'll walk a righteous way.
