

I used these pictures from old primary lessons, Black is the story, Red words of the song you sing

Tomb picture - After Jesus was crucified, his friends took his body into a tomb. Then they rolled a large stone in front of the opening. Jesus had told the disciples that he would rise from the dead on the third day after he died.

Did Jesus really live again? Yes when the third day came...

Mary and resurrected Christ - Early on the third day Mary came to the tomb and discovered that Jesus' body was not there! She thought someone had stolen his body. Then Mary saw someone she thought was the gardener. She asked him where Jesus's body was. But it wasn't the gardener it was Jesus.

He wakened and he left the tomb. He called Mary's name.

When he called her name she knew it was Jesus. Imagine how she felt. She ran back to the apostles to tell them what she had seen. At first the apostles did not believe her. Soon Jesus went to his apostles.

Did Jesus come to those he loved?

Christ having a meal with apostles- At first, they thought Jesus was a ghost, but he showed them that he was truly a resurrected being by letting them touch his body and eating a meal with them.

Yes, people touched his feet. And of the fish and honeycomb He did truly eat.

Christ showing the apostles his hands -They touched the nail prints in his hands and the spear wound in his side.

And there were nail prints in his hands and a spear wound in his side.

Primary class with a little girl listening - A few years ago, Dianne's grandma died. Dianne was only 4 years old, but she loved her grandma and missed her very much. Every night she would pray and ask God to bring her grandmas back. She was so very sad. One day in primary they talked about Jesus and how after he died, he was resurrected. They sang this song and as they sang the words

Did Jesus really live again after he had died? Oh yes and so shall I

Dianne felt the spirit tell her it was true. She knew her grandma would live again someday. It made her vey happy. Now instead of praying for God to bring her grandma back, she prayed to ask him to watch over her Grandma until she could see her again.
